BALTIMORE'S CELEBRATION.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 11.—Baltimore commenced to-day the celebration of the settlement and founding of the city 150 years ago. The sun rose in a cloudless sky, the haze of the Indian summer tempering its rays, and in every respect the morning was auspicious, and the entire day proved most favorable.

At sunrise 100 guns were fired from the United States ships Vandalia and Kearsage, lying in the harbor off Fort McHenry. The city in every direction was dressed in holiday attire, and the principal streets on the line of march were brilliant with flags, streamers and beautiful banners. Before 8 o'clock the streets were filled with people, and by 9 every space on Baltimore street and the route of procession was occupied. Hundreds of platforms, many of them seating several thousands, had been erected at many points and all were crowded. The programme for this, the opening day, of the jubilee was a grand procession to illustrate the history and industry and progress of Baltimore in her life of one hundred and fifty years, in all branches of science, industry and trade.

First came a display of corn and flour exchange, which consisted of representations by 800 men of old and new methods of handling and transporting grain, including a miniature elevator at work and illustrations of various processes in growth and production of wheat and flour, such as harvesting and threshing, &c. The Northern Central railway company was next in line and made a fine display, all departments of railway work being fully represented by a large force of employees. This was followed by Adams' express company in seven wagons. St. Mary's industrial school was represented by four hundred children in wagons, engaged in their respective trades, and a platoon of courtiers of the time of Lord Baltimore. The second division consisted of a series of floats representing scenes in the early history of the country and in the revolutionary war, such as wigwags with Indians, Capt. John Smith in a boat exploring Chesapeake bay, scenes from pioneer life and life at Valley Forge in midwinter. These were followed by minute men, on foot and on horseback. Next came the exhibition of the telephone company, followed by wagons loaded with tropical trees, plants and flowers, from the greenhouses and gardens of the city. The third division was composed of a large number of German societies, numbering in the aggregate several thousand men, mostly on foot. A fine tableau, of Apollo and the Muses, was at the head of the division. The fourth division consisted of thirty-six benevolent societies, relief associations and lodges of various orders, which made a very fine appearance. The fifth division included more than a hundred beautifully decorated four-horse wagons, representing various industries and vocations. The sixth division was devoted mainly to representations of the various processes in wood manufactures; it comprised about 112 wagons and two thousand men. The seventh division was headed by a series of floats representing the history of the postal service, from the old time post rider to the modern fast mail. The remainder of this division was taken up with representations of various manufacturing processes and trades, as were also the three succeeding divisions, which can only be briefly referred to. Each division comprised hundreds of wagons and thousands of men.

The head of the first division moved at 9:30 a. m., and it was after 3 o'clock when the last wagon passed. The march of the entire column, therefore, occupied fifteen hours in time. The celebration to-day has, in number, in its tableaux, its exhibition of the several trades, and in every respect, far exceeded anything that it was supposed Baltimore could possibly do. A great number of gentlemen who have witnessed all similar displays in this country, as well as Europe, speak of the effort to-day as far exceeding anything they have ever seen. The city to-night is ablaze with electric and calcium lights and the city hall and Washington monument are brilliantly illuminated with thousands of gas jets. The streets are thronged with people. At this hour, 10 o'clock, no serious accidents are reported.

U. S. SUPREME COURT.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—The supreme court of the United States assembled at noon to-day. All the justices were present except Hunt, Clifford and Field. The Louisiana lottery case, assigned for the first day term, was, on motion of Attorney General Devins, indefinitely postponed, and the case of the Kentucky lottery company was dismissed for reasons already stated in these dispatches. New suits will probably be begun in the lower courts against Postmaster General Maynard.

FLORIDA.

Who are the Voters?

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Oct. 11.—Some excitement in political circles here has been caused by a controversy between the democratic and republican committees on the question whether persons convicted of larceny have a right to register and vote. The attorney general, in an opinion furnished Governor Drew, takes the ground that persons convicted of larceny by any court of competent jurisdiction, without regard to the grade of the crime, forfeit elective franchise. The republican state committee, however, take the position that when a conviction is for a less sum than twenty dollars it makes the offence a misdemeanor, and not a felony, and does not warrant such disqualification. The republican committee's circular threatens any registration officer or inspector of election with prosecution in the United States courts, if they interfere in any way with the right of a citizen to vote on account of his conviction in a justice's court. The democrats, on the other hand, are determined that their view of the matter shall control registering officers.

BULLDOZING.

After the Poor Negroes Again.

GREENVILLE, S. C., Oct. 11.—An affair occurred near here Saturday night, after a joint meeting of the negroes and white men of the county. Stones and pistols were used. Two negroes were injured; one severely. One white man was seriously wounded and several were slightly injured by stones. All is quiet now and no trouble is expected, although there were disturbing rumors last night. Warrants have been issued for the arrest of the white men, and the sheriff has gone for them. It is said the trouble arose between colored democrats and republicans.

THE INDIANS.

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., Oct. 11.—Gen. Howard has telegraphed to VanCouver, to Lieutenant Simmons, to proceed to Fort Townsend, with sixty men from the garrison to aid Surveyor Henry, on Skagit river, in the suppression of the Indian outbreak there.

BRIGHAM'S SUCCESSOR.

SALT LAKE, UTAH, Oct. 11.—The Mormon conference which adjourned yesterday was chiefly notable for the filling of the first presidency, which has been vacant since Brigham Young's death. John Taylor was elected ident pres.

THE SESQUI CENTENNIAL.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 9.—The celebration of the Sesqui centennial is continued to-day. The Knights Templar, Royal Arch and Blue Masons are out in strong force, including a number of visiting commanderies of Knights Templar. The remainder of the procession is composed of children of the public schools, of whom there are several thousand in line. A threat of rain early in the forenoon prevented many children from joining the line, but the procession is the largest of the kind ever witnessed in Baltimore.

RED AGAINST THE GREEN.

LONDON, Oct. 12.—A Dublin correspondent of the Manchester Guardian says the military authorities in the west of Ireland are making extensive preparations in view of the apprehended disturbances. Houses are being hired at Tuam and Headfort, in Galway, and at Ballinacorney, for immediate occupation by the military. A detachment of troops will also leave Curragh of Kildare for Castle Bar and Westport, in Mayo.

MINOR DISPATCHES.

WELDON, N. C., Oct. 12.—John Merritt, who made a murderous assault on J. T. Evans, postmaster here, on Saturday night, and at the same time inflicted serious injuries on J. R. Brady, broke jail last night and so far has eluded arrest.

PROVIDENCE, R. I.—The schooner Hattie Turner, of Thomaston, from Wilmington, N. C., for Boston, has put into Newport, with first and second mates, one seaman and the cook sick with bilious fever.

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—Chief Supervisor of Elections John I. Davenport to-day issued additional instructions to supervisors, directing them when they find an applicant for registration with unlawfully obtained or issued papers they shall arrest him, and with the paper bring him before the United States commissioner.

A TERMING SETTLED.

NORFOLK, VA., Oct. 12.—Put in here in distress, the brig American Union, from Wilmington to Savannah, with car wheels. She had her mainmast sprung and sustained other injuries.

Information has been received here that President Huntington, of the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad, yesterday purchased situated at the junction of James river and Hampton roads. This finally settles the question of the eastern terminus of that railroad, and it is said work will be commenced at once and the road finished between Richmond and Newport in six months.

FOREIGN.

TEHRAN, Oct. 12.—The Kurds have fallen back as far as Soobulh, sending their booty over the frontier into Kurdistan. They are reported to have totally or partially destroyed 170 Persian villages. Tribes of Azerbeijan are preparing to march against them.

OHIO.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 12.—The weather is delightful though partly cloudy and cooler than yesterday. Both parties in this city are using every effort to secure a heavy vote. Very little scratching in done and everything is quiet at the polls up to this hour, 12:40 p. m. There will undoubtedly be a larger vote than was ever before polled, as in some precincts the vote at noon was up to the highest vote ever before cast. All points throughout Ohio and Indiana, heard from, indicate the same earnest work by both parties. It is the most exciting election held for a long time. Nothing can be told at this hour of the probable results.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 12.—S. P. M.—Hamilton county has undoubtedly gone republican by 1,500 or 2,000 majority. The election passed off without incident except a fracas in the 19th ward. PREPARING FOR DEMOCRATIC ROUGHS.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 12.—The report that Governor Foster has ordered the militia to take charge of the polls in Hamilton county is based on the fact that Mayor Jacobs called on the commander of the militia to hold his troops in readiness in case of riot. This has been done. The troops are assembled in the armory. The Governor has had nothing to do with it.

This year the comparison will be made with the figures for governor in 1879, the vote on the supreme judge being used for that purpose. The greenback vote will not be considered in this comparison. There are 1,869 precincts in the state, and it is expected nearly three-fourths of them will be heard from by one o'clock to-night. The first return was from Greencamp township, Marion county, which gives McIlvaine 177; Tollet 164; a republican gain of 13.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 12.—6:30 p. m.—In 1879 the total vote was: Foster, republican, for governor, 336,261; Ewing, democrat, 313,213; Platt, national, 9,072; Stewart, prohibition, 4,143. Foster's majority over all, 3,350; plurality 17,128.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 12.—9:10 p. m.—Twenty-five precincts give a net republican gain of 102.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 12.—9:40 p. m.—103 precincts in this state show a net republican gain of 642.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 12.—8:30 p. m.—Lincoln club people say the republicans claim the election of the entire county ticket by 3,500 and both congressmen. The democrats concede it by 2,500.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 12.—8:33 p. m.—Scattering returns from a few precincts show small republican gains. Comparisons are made with the vote for Foster and Ewing for governor.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 12.—8:50 p. m.—Thirteen precincts give a net republican gain of 104.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 12.—9 p. m.—Returns to 8 p. m. indicate a vote 15 to 20 per cent. larger than any man polled. The republicans claim the election of the entire county ticket and Congressman Hamilton by 4,000 majority, and the democrats concede 2,500.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 12.—The vote polled is 20 per cent. larger than ever polled before. In the afternoon a number of slight disturbances took place at the polls, but except in one instance the police were able to preserve order. That was in the eighth ward, where the republicans asked the aid of the police to give them equal chances at the polls. Two men assaulted a policeman and tore his clothes. He called for help and the men were arrested, but the crowd overpowered the police and rescued the men. Further reinforcements of the police were called, but by the time they arrived quiet was restored.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 12.—One hundred and fifty-nine townships give a net republican gain of 1,235.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 12.—9:10 p. m.—Returns from four precincts of Hamilton county show a net democratic gain of 35.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 12.—Two hundred and twenty-nine townships give a net republican gain of 1,479.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 12.—9 p. m.—Returns are coming in a little earlier than usual and the gains, although hitherto favorable to the republicans in most precincts, have not been uniformly so, and it is noticeable that where there has been democratic increase it has usually been very marked. It seems to be a fact that the republican gains have been chiefly in sections already republican and that democratic gains have come chiefly from democratic sections. On the basis of the figures already received the republicans claim a majority larger than that of last year, but it is too early to make any definite estimate.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 12.—Two hundred and eighty-one townships show a net republican gain of 1,594.

Three hundred and fourteen precincts give a republican net gain of 1,737. Later—Three hundred and thirty-two precincts give a net republican gain of 2,007.

INDIANA.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 12.—2:20 p. m.—The election in this city and throughout the state is quiet. Nearly all the votes were polled at 4 p. m. The ticket is very long.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 12.—7:40.—The election passed off quietly, and no disturbance had been reported from any quarter when the polls closed at 6 o'clock. The vote polled is very large, but there is nothing to indicate the result as yet. In this city there was considerable scratching on the candidates for governor and congressmen. Comparisons on the returns will be made with the vote for governor in 1878.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., Oct. 12.—9:15 p. m.—The republicans claim the election of Porter. The democrats also are confident of having carried the vote. Only four townships are heard from. The republican gain over the vote of 1878 is 29.

8:40 p. m.—Ohio and Indiana agents say the election figures will probably be late coming. At 9 p. m. neither of the political headquarters in Indianapolis had anything to telegraph.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 12.—10:30 p. m.—Scattering returns from various parts of the state seem to show small republican gains.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 12.—Returns from thirty-five precincts and from many counties, show a republican gain on 1878.

WEST VIRGINIA.

WHEELING, Oct. 12.—West Virginia polled a heavy and increased vote. The democratic majority is largely reduced. Considerable scratching was done. It will be very late before definite returns can be obtained. In White Sulphur Springs precinct only half a vote was polled—35 for Jackson, democrat, and 80 for Stargess, republican, for governor.

The vote in Ohio county, West Virginia, is very close. No report from the interior yet. The republicans claim the election of Parks for sheriff by a small majority.

DEATH IN THE FLAMES.

Firemen in a Bath of Fire.

CHICAGO, Oct. 12.—At one o'clock this forenoon fire broke out in the Academy of Music, a beautiful West Side theatre on Halsted street, near Madison, and before the flames could be controlled the entire interior of the building was destroyed, leaving the walls standing. When the fire had been burning a little more than 10 minutes a crush was heard and a portion of the roof on which were a number of firemen, fell in, causing terrible consternation.

It was some minutes before the extent of the disaster was appreciated, and then the work of rescuing the unfortunate men began. It was found that some had saved themselves by climbing to a portion which had not fallen. Fire marshal Williams was helped out of the main entrance staggering and bloody, but without serious injury. Theo. Bumbard, fireman, was taken out badly burned and with internal injuries, which is believed fatal. C. W. Danker, of the hook and ladder company, and Lieutenant Palmer are badly injured about the lower limbs.

John Nichols received severe, but not fatal injuries. Assistant fire marshal Peters was on a roof when it fell and clung to a portion of the wall, but it gave way and he fell, with others, clear to the bottom, breaking his right leg and receiving other injuries.

Three men, named Anderson, Daly and Heilman, of a hook and ladder company, fell to the bottom unhurt.

The fire originated among the flies back of the stage and spread to the scenery and roof with incredible rapidity. The loss is not yet known, but heavy. This theatre was destroyed about three years ago, having been the leading place of amusement in this city after the great fire until the south side theatres were rebuilt. Nearly $20,000 were spent in redecorating it this summer. W. E. Emmett has been the recently lessee and manager of the burned theatre.

COLD-BLOODED MURDER.

WELDON, N. C., Oct. 21.—Information has just been received here of a most cold-blooded murder committed in Northampton county, a few days since. Ransom Harris aged 14 years and James Ingram aged 10 years went into the woods together to cut wood. While thus engaged, the two boys became engaged in a quarrel, during which the younger threw an axe at Harris but missed his aim. Harris then threw his axe at Ingram, striking him on the head, killing him instantly.

Harris was arrested and brought before a magistrate and sent on for murder.

The eleventh annual exposition of Roanoke and Tar River agricultural society is in progress here. There are fine prospects of a successful exhibition.
